

Choose the best answer.

Every day lots of different people come to Happy Hills because there are lots of exciting things to do.

Sally Brown (1) walks / waits / works / wants at Happy Hills in her holiday. (2) She / It / Her / Hers is a student and she wants (3) for / to / at / of be a teacher.

'I need the (4) money / car / house / clothes,' she tells her family, 'and it's (5) an / a / the / that interesting job.' But she is always (6) much / more / such / very tired in the evening.

The workers (7) on / at / to / with Happy Hills arrive early in the (8) work / time / morning / night. They all wear clean green trousers (9) also / but / so / and yellow shirts. They must smile a (10) lot / lots / not / little and be nice to all the (11) schools / cars / clothes / visitors.

Every morning Mr Parry puts a (12) email / list / paper / letter of Jobs for Today in the (13) workers' / Sally's / Mr Parry's / family's canteen. Mr Parry wears different clothes. (14) Her / Our / Their / His shirt is green and his trousers (15) are / is / was / am white, and he wears a red (16) shoes / coat / trousers / bag with I'm Ken Parry. Can I (17) play / see / help / talk you? on his pocket. The visitors (18) name / call / tell / say him Ken, but all the workers (19) name / call / tell / say him Mr Parry.

Today Sally arrives (20) of / to / for / at Happy Hills at eight o'clock. On her shirt there is a picture of a smiling face and Have a Happy Day in black and red writing. She goes to the canteen and looks for Mr Parry's list.

'What job am I doing today?' Sally thinks. 'Am I making tea, or helping in the children's play house?'

But Sally is wrong. The list says, 'Sally Brown – Connie Cat. Break: eleven o'clock.'