Alice was beginning to get very bored. She and her sister were sitting under the trees. Her sister was reading, but Alice had nothing to do. Once or twice she looked into her sister's book, but it had no pictures or conversations in it.

'And what is the use of a book,' (1) told / wrote / thought / listened Alice, 'without pictures or conversations?'

She (2) tried / tries / trying / will try to think of something to do, (3) and / but / so / because it was a hot day and (4) he / it / she / they felt very sleepy and stupid. She (5) is / was / were / be still sitting and thinking when suddenly (6) his / an / a / one White Rabbit with pink eyes ran (7) through / past / along / to her.

There was nothing really strange (8) about / that / for / to seeing a rabbit. And Alice was (9) none / no / not / nor very surprised when the Rabbit said, '(10) Oi / Ouch / Ah / Oh dear! Oh dear! I shall be (11) late / early / on time / slow!' (Perhaps it was a little strange, (12) the Rabbit / Alice / her sister / she's thought later, but at the time (13) he / it / they / she was not surprised.)

But then the (14) girl / book / Rabbit / Alice took a watch out of its (15) packet / pocket / arm / clock, looked at it, and hurried on. (16) At / On / In / For once Alice jumped to her feet.

'(17) I'm / I'll / I've / I'd never before seen a rabbit with (18) either / both / neither / each a pocket, or a watch to (19) took / taken / taking / take out of it,' she thought. And (20) her / hers / she / she's ran quickly across the field after (21) a / the / it / those Rabbit. She did not stop to (22) try / tell / think / talk, and when the Rabbit ran down (23) an / a / one / only large rabbit-hole, Alice followed it immediately.

(24) Behind / Then / After / Next a little way the rabbit-hole suddenly (25) went / goes / had gone / gone down, deep into the ground. Alice (26) should / could / able / may not stop herself falling, and down (27) she / it / they / he went, too.

It was a very (28) normal / strange / slow / strong hole. Alice was falling very slowly, (29) with / that / where / and she had time to think and (30) for / to / at / so look around her. She could see nothing below her because it was so dark. But when she looked at the sides of the hole, she could see cupboards and books and pictures on the walls. She had time to take things out of a cupboard, look at them, and then put them back in a cupboard lower down.

'Well!' thought Alice. 'After a fall like this, I can fall anywhere! I can fall downstairs at home, and I won't cry or say a word about it!'
